Kilmahew Box ~~103~~ 614 Route 2
Ramer, Alabama 36069

June 27, 1984

Dear Mrs. Edwards,

As you see, you only got my first and middle names, but your letter of the 20th reached me. I am glad to furnish you with the information on my great-great-grandfather's family.

John Creed Napier was born Sept 26, 1823 in Smith Co., Tenn., second son of John Staples Napier and his third wife, Frances B. Hawkins. That family came to Mississippi in 183[illegible], living at different times in Covington Co (1837), ~~Draper~~ Draper Co (1846), Clarke Co (1850) + Wayne Co (1851-52). I believe John S. + Frances H. Napier ~~died~~ + were buried in Wayne in 1852 or afterwards, but I dont know + certainly would like to. Are there any Wayne County cemetery records?

His son, John C. Napier, married Sarah Leah Martin (Dec. 23, 1853 - March 19, 1910) in Decatur, Newton Co., Miss. on Nov. 5, 1846, + her father's name was Benjamin Brewton Martin. They lived in Clarke Co in 1850, in Wayne Co. from at least 1854-60, where he was District four Inspector in 1860, but was in Jones County in the 1860s + in Covington Co in the 1870s where John C. Napier died near Seminary May 6, 1879. The couple are buried in an old Napier graveyard overlooking Brown Mill Creek near the Covington-Jones Counties line. They had the following children:

1. Mary Leah, b. 1848, m. Augustus Sandy.
2. Sarah Martha, b 1849, d. y.
3. Philip Hawkins II (named for his childless uncle, a noted Methodist minister), b. Jan 2, 1850, m. Marguerite A. Mangum.
4. Susan, b. 1851, d. y.
5. John Martin, b. 1852, m. Florence Bradford.
6. Benjamin Brewton (my great-grandfather) b. Aug. 4, 1854. m. 1. Martha Jane Gillespie (" " mother), 2. Susan Lott by whom he had a second family, and three more times.
7. Elizabeth, b. 1858, m. James Knight.
8. Joseph Olan II (named for his father's youngest brother, also a Methodist minister). b. Feb. 17, 1860, m. Frances Reed. Boots

the mill pond at Napier's (now Brown's) Mill Creek

10. Copatola, b. 1866, m. Allen Davis.

11. William Waynick, b. Sept 1869, m. Ada Smith. He was a physician in Wayne County, and for some reason gave all his children names beginning with "R". I think the only one living is Romeo Napier of Buckatunna, Wayne Co., Miss. and he must be getting pretty old, tho I believe the baby of seven or eight children

12. Jan. Aug. 20, 1871 - Oct. 17, 1878.

13. Rosetta Ann, b. 1874, m. James Kelly. She was still living in the 1950s when I visited her in Seminary, but has died long since.

14. Franklin Creed, b. Mar 20, 1877, m. Ina Floyd.

Except for no. 11, I think about all of those who grew to maturity lived in Covington Co. Among my "Grandpa Ben's" children, the eldest was my own grandfather John Hawkins Napier. Sr, + my father was his eldest.

Your record is apparently from the U.S. Wayne Co. Miss. Census (vol 9, p. 38), except that in there Sarah's age + state of birth are wrong - but there was no William, b. 1855. Where did you get that?

I hope that the above is useful to you, and if you find out more on my family in Wayne County, I would appreciate your informing me. I have copies of two of John S. Napier's letters, one from Jasper in 1846 to a sister in N.C. and one from Wayne in 1851 to a brother in N.C., as well as an 1852 letter from Wayne to his Congressman trying to get his War of 1812 bounty land. Good luck with your book + let me know when it comes out.

Sincerely yours,

John Hawkins Napier III

NAPIER
VIRGINIA TENNESSEE MISSISSIPPI and other southern states

The origin of the name NAPIER is uncertain, but the family is of Scottish ancestry. A certain Mungo Napier was burgess of Dumbarton before 1600, and his son Patrick was admitted to the same office on July 23, 1633. This Patrick was barber to King Charles I of England, and his son Patrick Jr., born between 1634 and 1639, was apprenticed to Dr. Alexander Pennycuik on May 6, 1649. Dr. Pennycuik was surgeon to Sir Alexander Leslie's Scottish Troops, defeated at the Battle of Dunbar by the army of Oliver Cromwell. Subsequently Patrick Napier emigrated to Virginia with other Scottish Royalists after the year 1650.

The immigrant DR. PATRICK NAPIER, progenitor of this family in America, came to Gloucester Co. in 1654 or 1655. One Peter Ford received 500 acres at Cacamount, Gloucester Co., Virginia, March 25, 1655, for transporting ten persons to the colony, among whom Patrick Napier is listed.

Patrick Napier married in 1658 Elizabeth Booth, who was born 1645, died 1672, the daughter of Dr. Robert Booth, an early Virginia colonist, and his wife Frances. Dr. Booth and his wife first lived at Belleville, Gloucester County; he later became clerk of York Co. in 1639, Justice in 1652, and a member of the Virginia House of Burgesses, 1653-54. Dr. Booth died in 1657, leaving a thousand-acre plantation and a large library.

Issue of Dr. Robert Booth and wife Frances: Elizabeth, shown to have married Dr. Patrick Napier; Anne, who married as her second husband William Clopton, and is buried in the graveyard of St. Peter's Episcopal Church, New Kent County; Robert; Eleanor; and William Booth.

Dr. Patrick Napier and his father-in-law were among the few physicians in early Virginia. Patrick lived first in Hampton Parish, York County, where he signed an estate settlement Dec.10,1664. His daughter Frances "of York County" married Benjamin Woodson, son of John Woodson and his wife Mary (daughter of Samuel and Jane Tucker) (Jester and Hiden, Adventurers of Purse & Person, p.370). Dr. Patrick Napier also had a plantation of 1500 acres in Blisland Parish, New Kent Co., which he left to his son Robert and daughter Frances. (Will dated Feb.20,1668, filed April 12, 1669 in York County, Virginia.) This plantation adjoined that of Major-General Mainwaring Hammond, one of the leading Cavalier officers in Virginia.

ROBERT NAPIER, son of Patrick, was born ca 1660, and appears as Capt. Robert Napier in the records of Old King William Co., Va. He was evidently an officer in the Colonial Militia. Between the years 1690 and 1701 he received nearly 1300 acres for the importation of settlers. He married Oct.11, 1688 Mary Perrin, daughter of Richard Perrin and his wife Katherine Royall. Katherine's father Joseph Royall was one of the earliest Virginia settlers, having arrived in the "Charitie" July 1622, and was listed at Neck of Land in Charles City the following year. (Hotten, Original Lists, p.169.)

Robert Napier's lighthearted attitude towards his responsibilities is evidenced by the following: "Captain Soane had made an agreement to run his horse against one belonging to Mr. Littleberry Epes, which was backed by Mr.

Robert Napier, £10 a side. Mr. Napier did not produce the horse at the appointed time and the suit was for the amount of the stake, as an agreement had been made that the horse which did not appear should forfeit the whole amount." (Henrico Co., Va., Records, 1688-89, p.74).

It is also recorded that Robert's wife Mary (Perrin) once took him to court to prevent him from gambling away their children's patrimony, and to ensure that he would spend a percentage of his income solely to support his family.

Issue of Robert and Mary (Perrin) Napier:

1. Booth Napier, b. Oct.1,1692, m. Sarah _____.
2. Frances Napier, b. Feb.5, 1694/5, married Benjamin Woodson, who d. 1778 in Fluvanna Co. (W.Bk.1, p.9).
3. Robert Napier Jr., of whom later.
4. Katherine Napier, b. Oct.12, 1700.
5. Elizabeth Napier, b. Dec.25, 1704.

Two other sons may have been Patrick (b.1713) and Rene (b. ca 1715).

ROBERT NAPIER Jr. was born Sept.16, 1697. He is believed to have inherited his father's plantation in a will dated 1744, which has not been found. He is known to have received at least two royal grants of 300 acres in Goochland County, in 1734 and 1735, by which time he had apparently moved inland, to the James River valley. In Goochland he deeded a negro girl to his wife on Jan.5, 1743, and a negro boy named Will to his daughter Frances. He moved again, to Albemarle Co., Virginia, where he made his will Dec.9,1755; it was proved May 12, 1763.

Robert Napier married Mary Hughes ca 1723, the daughter of Jesse Hughes and his wife Sarah Tarleton of Henrico County. Issue:

1. Stephen Napier, of Louise Co., Va. (named for his uncle Stephen Hughes).
2. Patrick Napier, who perhaps married Martha Claiborne. Note: A Patrick Napier who made his will in Albemarle Co. Jan.1773, probated March 1775, m. Martha Claiborne (Boddie, Va. Historical Genealogies, p.40); however, this could have been his uncle Patrick, son of Robert Sr., previously mentioned.

3. Ashford Napier, of whom later.
4. Robert Napier III, born 1737, married Elizabeth (Woodson?)
5. Frances Napier, m. Reuben Francis.
6. Judith Napier, m. _____ Gibson.
7. Joyce Napier, m. John Hammond.

ASHFORD NAPIER was born probably prior to 1734 in Goochland Co., Va., and was named for his uncle, Ashford Hughes. His father willed him a 200-acre plantation on the Rivanna River, and a negro named Tom. On Dec.20,1763, Ashford sold the plantation, together with negroes and two mares, for the sum of £106.18.0, but he was still living in Albemarle Co. Nov.13, 1772, in St.Anne's Parish, where he was deeded 218 acres. He is mentioned as living in Bedford Co. in 1773, and in Fluvanna Co. in 1776 (which was formed from Albemarle). He bought 300 acres in Fluvanna in 1777, and a year later he bought a further 300 acres on Bryery Creek for £115. He served in the Revolutionary War, being commissioned on April 7, 1780 as ensign in Capt. Anthony Haden's Company, Fluvanna County,Virginia Militia.

By the year 1777, Ashford Napier had married Mary Ann Staples, daughter of David Staples and his wife Christiana (Ford) of Campbell County, Va. On Nov.4, 1779, Ashford sold the 300 acres on Bryery Creek for £400, and on Sept.4,1780, he sold the 218 acres on Cunningham Creek for £200, bought in 1772 for £60. Then he apparently moved to what is now Franklin County, in the hills of south-west Virginia, for he was mentioned in Henry County in 1785 (one of the parent counties of Franklin). On Feb.17, 1786, he sold 96 acres on Cunningham Creek in Fluvanna for £10, and on Sept.30, 1786, he bought 140 acres in Franklin Co. On Nov.6 of the same year he bought 460 acres on Pigg River for £300 and this became the family home. In 1791 he was the delegate from Franklin Co. to the Virginia General Assembly. Perhaps because of all the foregoing transactions, he appears to have gotten into financial difficulties, for on March 4, 1795 he mortgaged his seven negroes, livestock, crops and household furniture to his brother Robert of Rockingham County, N.C., for the sum of £400. He sold his Pigg River lands in 1799.

Ashford Napier died between Oct.2, 1800, when he sold the 140 acres in Franklin Co., and June 1801, when his power-of-attorney was filed in lieu of a will in Franklin County. In 1803 his widow and heirs sold certain property.

Issue of Ashford Napier and his wife Mary:

1. John Staples Napier, of whom later.
2. William Napier, m. Betsy Witcher and settled in Kentucky (not proven).
3. David Sherlock Napier, m. his cousin Winifred Champion Napier and settled in Surry Co., North Carolina.
4. Ashford Napier Jr., m. (1) unknown; he m. (2) Mrs. Nancy Echols and settled in Mountain Home, Arkansas.
5. Elizabeth Napier, m. (1) David Booth; (2) Elisha Keen of Richmond, and later lived in Surry Co., N.C.
6. Mary Ann Napier, m. Skelton Brown in Franklin Co., Va., and settled in Sumner Co., Tennessee.
7. Catherine Napier, m. her cousin Robert Napier IV and settled in Marengo Co., Alabama.
8. Frances Napier, m. John Godsey and settled in Rockingham Co., N.C.
9. Susannah Elizabeth Napier, m. (1) her cousin Thomas Smith Napier, and settled in Sumner Co., Tenn. She m. (2) Benjamin Henley of Sumner County.

The dispersal of this generation is typical of the migrations after the War of 1812, when many Americans pushed south and west from the seaboard states.

JOHN STAPLES NAPIER was born July 24,1778 in Fluvanna County, Va., and was reared at the family home on Pigg River in Franklin Co., and received a good education. He married (1) Elizabeth Henson in Franklin Co. on Oct.29,1799. She seems to have died, for on March 15,1805 he married as his second wife Lucy Cook. Issue:

1. Laura Lavinia Napier, m. Seth Asa Greer in Davidson Co., Tenn.
2. Lucinda Napier, m. Brison Greer in Davidson Co.
3. Thomas Napier, settled in Alabama.
4. Franklin Napier, settled in Illinois.

John Staples Napier sold 240 acres in Franklin County and moved to Gallatin Co., Illinois, and thence to Sumner Co., Tennessee. He was probably accompanied by others of his family, for in 1820 he and his brother Ashford Jr., and sisters Mary Ann and Susannah, with their husbands, were all living in Sumner County.

On Dec.24, 1812, in Nashville, Tenn., John Napier enlisted for 18 months in Capt.Robert Butler's Company, 24th U.S. Infantry, commanded by Col. William P. Anderson. John Napier was soon detailed as regimental clerk, then as quartermaster. By regulation the latter post had officer status. The regiment marched to what he called the "Canada Lakes"; years later, (trying to get his land bounty), he wrote a poignant letter in which he described being "torn from the arms of a young and beautiful wife and two or three (sic) small children" to go to war. (War of 1812). The regiment apparently saw little combat on the Canadian border, and returned to Nashville, where he was honorably discharged on time, June 23, 1814. He received 160 acres on July 6, 1852 for his service "in the second war with Great Britain".

John Napier's second wife died, and he married as his third wife in Tennessee Frances B. Hawkins, who was born 1790 in North Carolina. Issue of third marriage:

5. Philip Hawkins Napier, b. Nov.4,1821 in Smith Co., Tenn., a Methodist minister, m. Sarah Dooley.
6. John Creed Napier, of whom later.
7. Elizabeth Ann Napier.
8. Frances Catherine Napier, b. 1825, m. William Blacklidge.
9. Joseph Olan Napier, b. 1829, a Methodist minister, m. Anne M. Dyess.

John Napier removed with his second family to Mississippi in 1831 and settled in Jasper and Wayne Counties in the Piney Woods, where he was a farmer and teacher. He and his third wife died after 1852, date and place unknown.

JOHN CREED NAPIER, born Sept.26, 1823 in Smith County,Tennessee, was also a farmer and teacher in southern Mississippi. With his brother Philip he ran a grist mill on Napier's Mill Creek (now Snow's Creek) in Jones County, Miss. With their wives, they are buried in the family graveyard on a hill above the stream.

By this time the Napiers had changed from their affiliation with the Virginia Episcopal Church to Methodism, probably during the Great Revival of the early 19th century. John's brothers were ministers, and he was a lay delegate to the Mississippi Methodist Conference in 1870. He was also active in county politics, serving as inspector for Wayne County, District Four, 1860. He was on the Jones County Board of Police (Supervisors) in 1860 and 1866, and on the Covington Board of Supervisors in 1877. He was also Postmaster at Zion Seminary, Covington Co., from 1873-1876. He was too old to serve in the Confederate Army and in any case, the family was opposed to secession.

On Nov.5, 1846 he married in Decatur, Newton Co., Miss., one of his pupils, Sarah Leah Martin, daughter of Benjamin Bruton Martin of Alabama. He died in Gandsi, Covington Co., Mississippi, May 6, 1879. Issue:

1. Mary Leah Polly Napier, b. 1848, m. Augustus Gandy.

BENJAMIN BRUTON NAPIER was born Aug.4, 1854, a farmer and a trader, lived in Covington Co., Miss. He married Jan.2, 1873 as his first wife Martha Jane Gillaspie, daughter of the Rev. Chas. Fox Gillaspie, Virginia-born Methodist minister, and chaplain 8th Miss. Infantry, C.S.A. 1862-3, who served in the invasion of Kentucky and at the Battle of Murfreesboro, Dec.31, 1862, being once wounded; his wife was Margaret W.
